

23. S1: National highways connect one state with another and are of national importance.

S6: These road systems are also known as primary road systems and are laid and operated under the supervision of the National Highway Authority of India.

P : They are important because whereas they constitute merely two per cent of the total road networks, they nevertheless carry 40 per cent of the total road traffic.

Q : The road infrastructure of the country is therefore crucial, and their construction and maintenance is of critical importance.

R : They bear the load of traffic because these roads connect long distances and pass through major cities and towns.

S : Since they cover the length and breadth of the nation and connect cities and towns, these highways are the primary facilitators of trade and connectivity.
